

COACH HARPER STILL LOOKING FOR SLUGGERS

Will Put Men Through Daily Drills in an Attempt to Bolster Up the Hitting Abilities of Notre Dame Team.

With the majority of the places on the varsity baseball team still in doubt, Coach Harper will give his men daily practice games in order to decide which men will land regular jobs. Crilly and Boland were used in the box for the first time yesterday, while Fitzgerald worked on the mound for the second time. Crilly allowed but few hits, but ranged support enabled his opponents to pile up a number of runs. Boland pitched good ball during the time that he was doing mound duty and may be worked in one of the varsity games this week.

"Dolly Gray," one of the varsity catchers, was hit on the ankle by one of Crilly's smoke balls yesterday and was forced to quit the game. Joe Kenny then did the receiving for both sides. The varsity men showed that they missed Monday's practice for they booted the ball often. Sharper fielding would have kept the scoring near to zero for the pitchers granted but few hits in succession. Andy Bjorn was the batting luminary of the practice tilt with three long wallops out of three trips to the plate. Bjorn clouted one hit over the third baseman's head, while his other drives were hot grounders that stayed just inside the left field foul line. Such clouting is needed in the varsity lineup and Bjorn will probably be seen in the varsity outfield in the next tilt. Lathrop, the man who has recently come to the front for a regular place in the varsity garden, delivered two clean hits in yesterday's fray baselines clouting the ball on the nose in his first two times at bat. Mike Carmody also used his war club with good effect, getting a wicked smash over short.

Notre Dame is to have some rough sledding in her game Thursday. The gold and blue is to stack up against Bethany college from Virginia. The southerners are taking a nine game trip and are sending a strong team to invade the middle west. They are to meet such nines as M. A. C. Washington and Jefferson. Duquesne, Heidelberg and Alma on their jaunt.

GROCERY CLERK NOW GREAT DIAMOND STAR

"PEP" YOUNG.

From grocery clerk to diamond star was the short cut to fame taken by "Pep" Young, sometimes called "the fastest" on the Pacific coast. Young's father owns a large grocery store in Philadelphia and "Pep" was playing ball against the wish of his parents.

During the 1913 season Young handled an average of six chances a game. He bats both right and left handed and is a speed burner on the bases.
